"IT WAS THE BEST OF TIMES . . ."

Are you still 28, Mr. Pate?

I can't believe we won that!

Dr. Jekyll or Mr. Hyde?!

It's better than the cafeteria!

I'm sure glad it's lunch time!

I thought I saw a pudgy cat!

Hurry up, Jeff!

Seniors!!

Come on John, do it for the Seniors!

Home Sweet Home!

What's in the cup, Steve?

"IT WAS THE WORST OF TIMES . . ."

Down! Up . . .

This beats the library!

Help!

What paper did I sign?

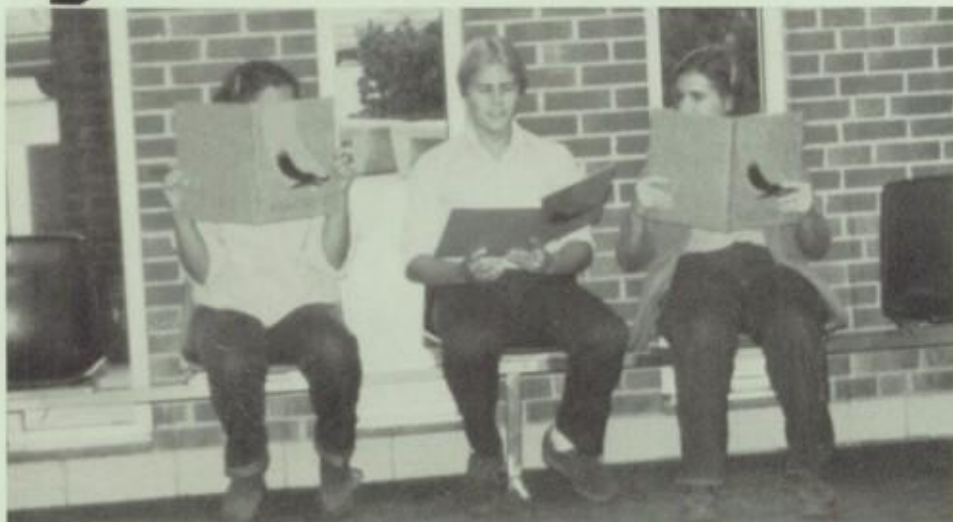

Lisa, how can you eat at a time like this?

Is it Friday yet?!

"IT WAS THE AGE OF WISDOM..."

The Three Stooges: Curly, Mo and Larry Joe!

The fans watching Annie in action! Eat your heart out, Arnold Palmer!

Whatever happened to the easy days!

Down in the dumps!

Another speed test?

Let's be logical . . . Do it my way!!

What's everybody looking at?

"IT WAS THE AGE OF FOOLISHNESS . . ."

Do, Re, Mi . . .

Come on Dana, let me have a turn!

It's a golden day?

As time rolls on . . .

To be or not to be.

You mean it's time to go to class.

Open wide, Betty!

"IT WAS THE EPOCH OF BELIEF ..."

I can't believe I ate the whole thing!

It's better than the cafeteria!

Put that cheat sheet away!

He finally called me!

Time for a break!

I'm going back for seconds!

I know I heard a voice!

The Black Eagle

Lunch time at S.C.!

Going up!

Yes, the bell did ring!

The Class!

This is the life!

Wake up, Jenny!

I don't want to go!

Smile, Davey!

"IT WAS THE EPOCH OF INCREDULITY..."

Any one for tennis?

I just can't stand speed tests!

Yeah, Seniors!

We had this yesterday!

I see the light!

How embarrassing!

On your mark get set, go!

Kill the Hill!

I hope this year's better than last!

Go, Danny!

"IT WAS THE SEASON OF LIGHT..."

You've got to be kidding!

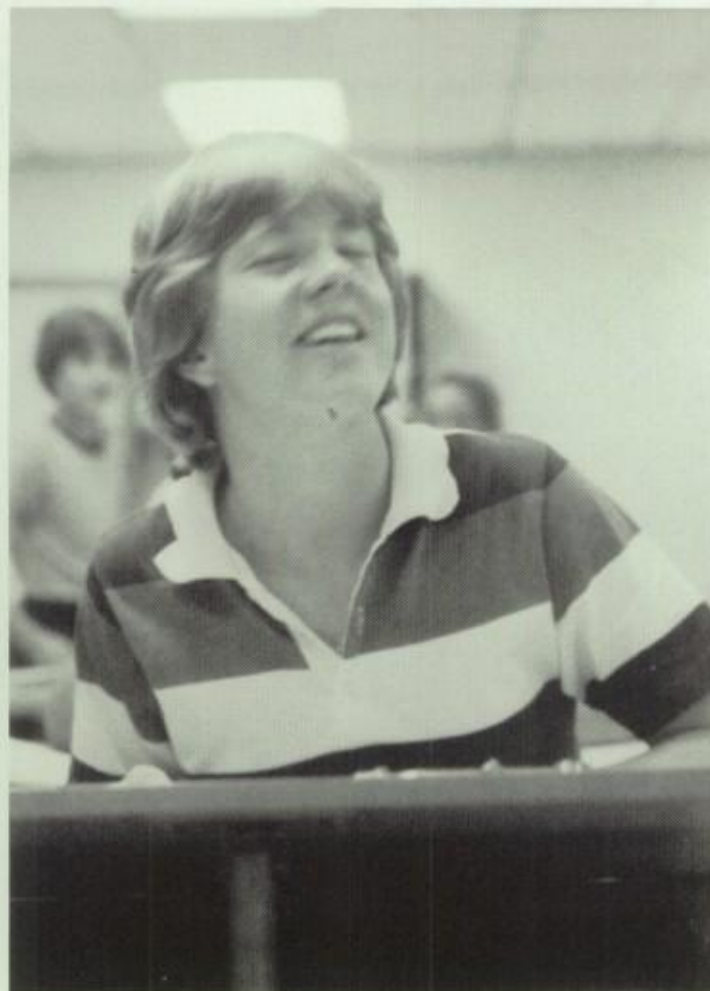

Smile, you're on Candid Camera.

I give up!

I just Luv this class.

Na, na, na, na, na, na.

Look Ma, no feet!!

"IT WAS THE SEASON OF DARKNESS . . ."

I'm gonna hit you!

What in the world?

Mondays!!

Did the bell ring?

On the right: Valedictorian?
On the left: Salutatorian?

Give me a little kiss, sweetheart!

"IT WAS THE SPRING OF HOPE..."

What form!

Team was in the huddle, the captain lowered his head.

You should've seen the other guy.

We are proud of our team!

Slow down, John!

What's my combination?

I hope we win!

Is this the half-time show?

Way to go, band!

Was that the bell?

"IT WAS THE WINTER OF DESPAIR..."

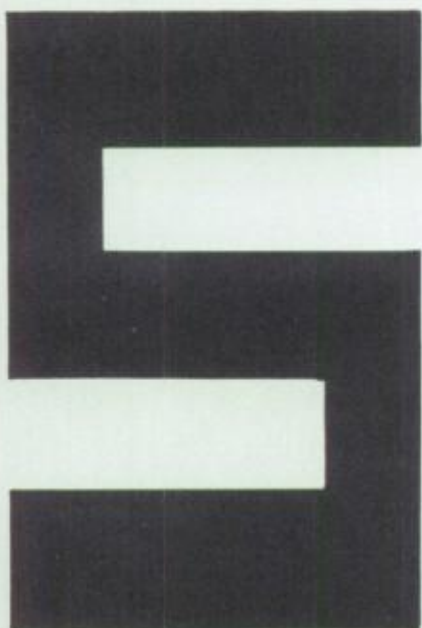

I'd just as soon stay here!

Time for a break!

I guess it's too late to study!

Come on Jeff, let's go!

I refuse to do any work!

I'm sure glad I studied.

Torture chamber!

"WE HAD EVERYTHING BEFORE US..."

Always and forever, each moment with you!!!

Time out for a soap opera!

Bottoms up!!

David, you're late!

The first four are false.

Tom? For President?

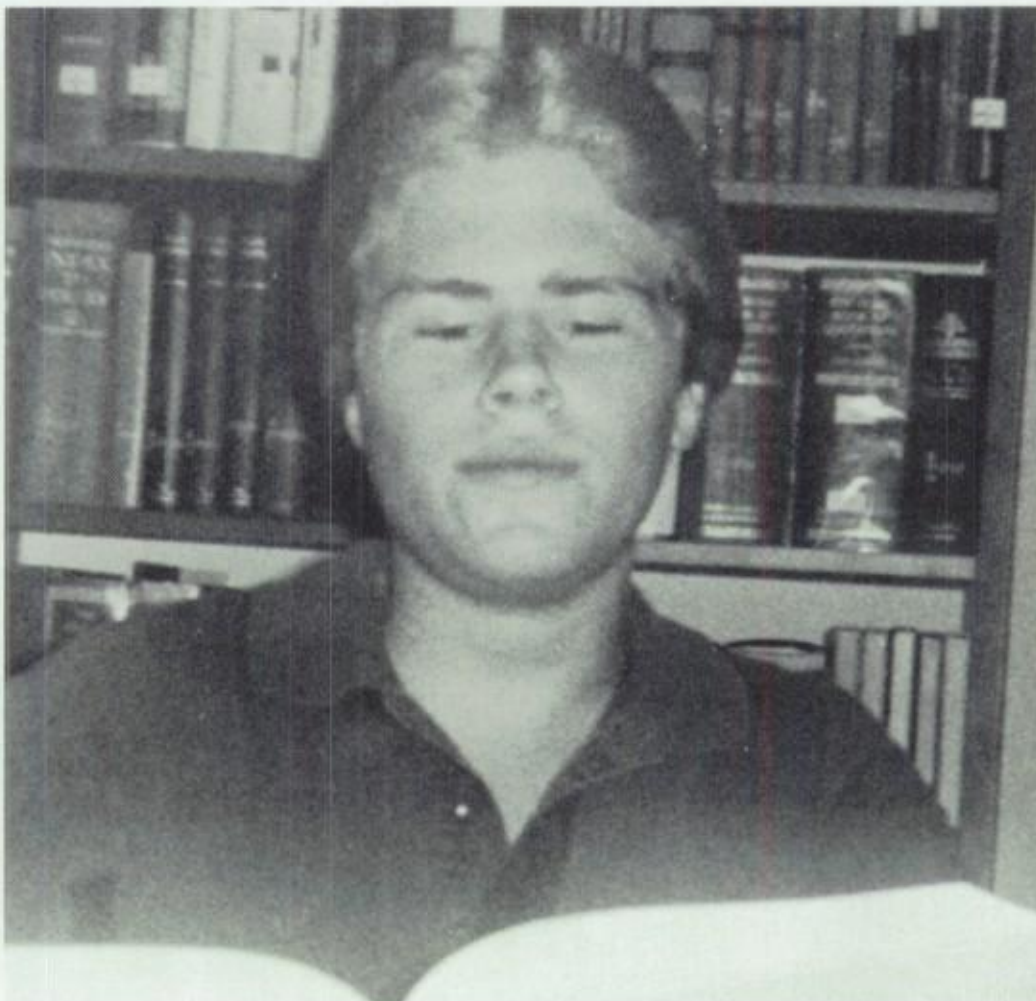

"WE HAD NOTHING BEFORE US . . ."

Together, again!

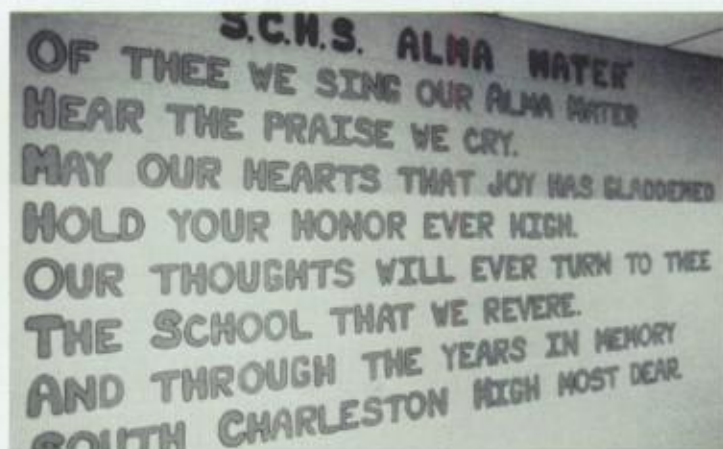

Now which one should I choose?!

I hate English Lit.!

But, I don't want to go back!

I've never heard it before!

Ha, ha, I've got you now!

"WE WERE ALL GOING DIRECTLY TO HEAVEN..."

Oh, Gee!

My Best Side!

One, two, ready...

Look, my pet shirt

Come on up!

Is he new?

'WE WERE ALL GOING DIRECTLY THE OTHER WAY ...'

We are family, I got all my brothers with me.

I'll cut you, my pretty!!

I think I'll grow up to be a baker, Mmmm!

That's incredible!

Colebank, step into my office!

Real People???

Party? Where?

Can we play Gene Simmons?

Sister's Sledge

FRIENDSHIP

The most cherished possession ...
A sunbeam in the darkest hour.
A blanket of security
In times of distress.
The most sought-after possession ...
Bought only with love and understanding.
Never bribed.
Never resold.
The most well-kept possession ...
Wrapped in honesty, trust and hope.
Tied with a handclasp.
Clean with love.

1980-81 Cheerleaders

"Give Me A C-H-E-E-R-L-E-A-D-E-R

By Ellen Schweppe of the Daily Mail Associated Press

A deep "DEE-DEE-DEFENSE" punctuates the high voices of the females on South Charleston High School's cheerleading squad.

The baritone accompaniment comes from the three males who have joined the squad, the first in the Kanawha Valley to go coed.

Not that cheerleading is solely a female domain. Males with megaphones are a common Saturday afternoon sight at college games these days. And they weren't uncommon at high-school games in the early days of cheerleading.

In recent years, cheerleading has become more an athletic than a vocal endeavor. And it's attracting more males — and females — who are interested in its gymnastic aspects.

A roar went up from the crowd when the South Charleston squad took center court at George Washington High School's gym this week to perform a cheer that ended in a pyramid with the young men supporting the young women.

Whether the roar was because of the squad's unusual makeup or was just home-court crowd razzing wasn't clear.

But the three males — Greg Rinehart, Steve Bays and David Beach — aren't concerned. Neither are the females on the squad, since it was their idea.

"I was on the tumbling team," Rinehart explained. "The girls saw how good I was and how loud I could yell and asked me to do it. It was just a joke at first."

Rinehart asked Bays to join him, "and I said, 'Why not?'" Bays said.

Beach took a little more convincing, but not because he thought cheerleading was unmanly. "I'm on the wrestling team," he said. "That takes a lot of time."

The three bought their own megaphones and uniforms — black slacks and orange knit shirts. They made their debut at South Charleston's basketball game against Barboursville, performing their first cheer amid catcalls.

"But once the crowd saw what they could do, they were quiet," said Barbara Brown, the squad's sponsor. "It was silent the rest of the game."

Although it may have started out as a joke, the three found that cheerleading is hard work.

"It takes a lot of endurance to get through a game," said Debbie Isaac, South Charleston's head cheerleader.

HIGH COMMAND

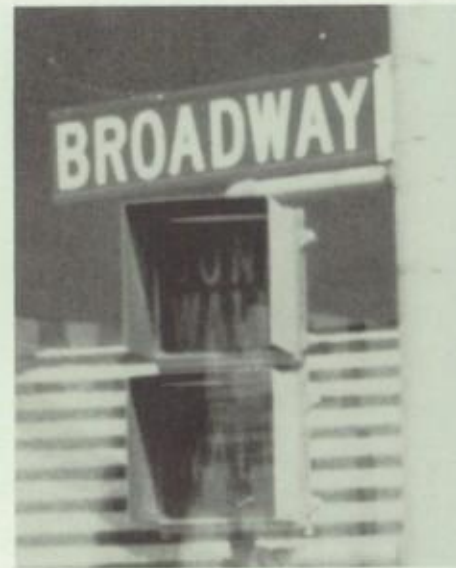

SC Chorale Goes to Nashville

Newest fashion by Gucci

Best in the West (Va.)

We finally made it!

Cheers to the bus driver

A friend of Kirk's, George Bernard

Togetherness?

Three of a kind

I want to be happy

School does this?!

Caught you!

He went that way

The glasses come off next

"This is the life"

We pledge allegiance . . .

The "Basses"

The Barn, Death Trap, "Battleaxe," domino principle, "Trust me" . . . Frisbee at 2:00 a.m., Frigid! Dreaded Willie Nelson joke, "Traaaaiin," 3rd floor going up!! No climbing on the train. "$40.00 for that!" "I want to ride the boats," "21" No, that's "23." The animals. Did you enjoy the rollercoaster, Gary? M*A*S*H; Doo Wap Ditty City.

Mayfair 1981

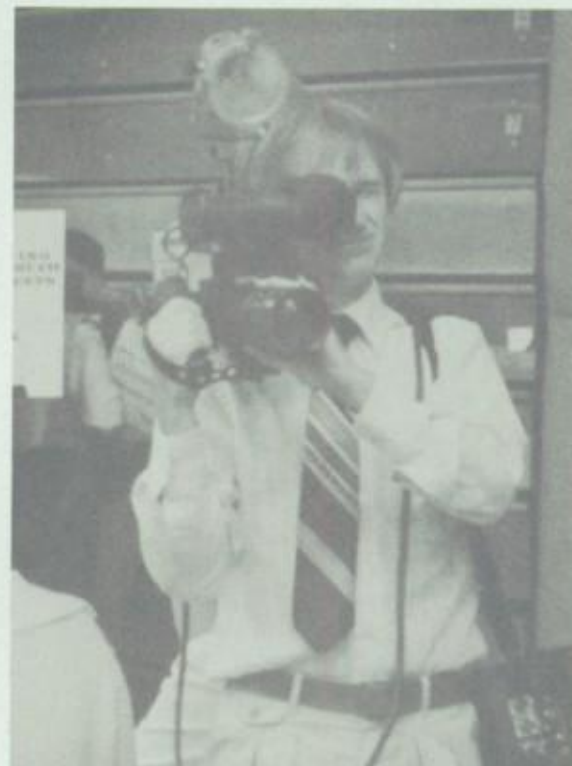

On Friday, May 8, the eighth annual Mayfair was given at SCHS by the College Prep English classes. This celebration brought the characters from English literature to life.

Some of the activities that took place during the two hour event were: The dunking of the Wife of Bath; Musical scenes from "Oliver;" the Dance of the Cards; the Dance of the Chimney Sweeps; and the Dance from Winnie the Pooh.

Lee Ann Heath was crowned Mayfair Queen and Rob Ransom was crowned Mayfair King.

A second look...

Seniors, Seniors, Seniors

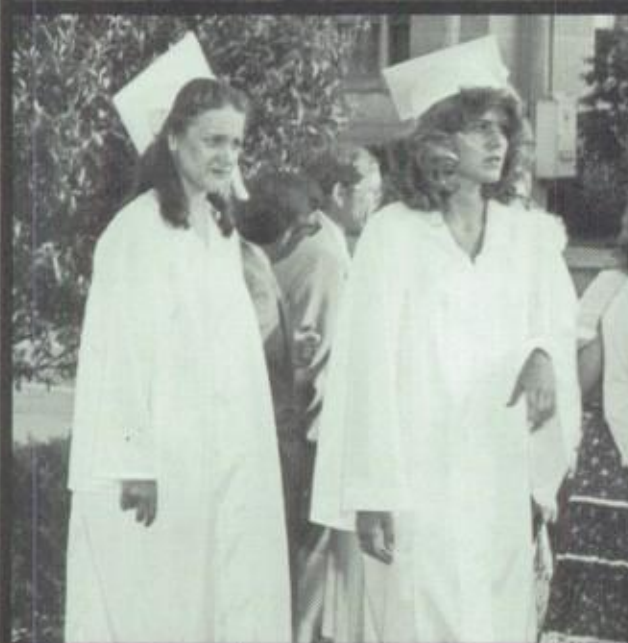

Last Will and Testament

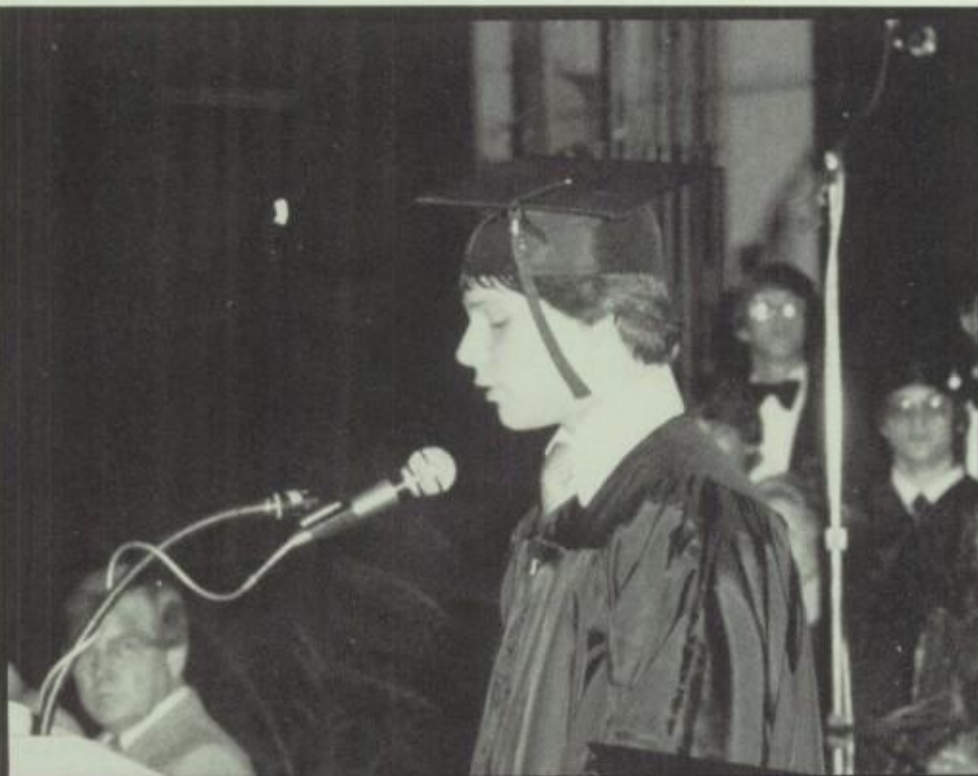

- I, Wayne Bailey, being of sound mind and healthy body do so will and bequeath my ability to hit the wrong exit at Taco Bell to Scotty Bays; my left-over State Wrestling Tournament balloons to be dropped sparingly by David Griffith; and my height to Wendy Smith.
- I, Pam Bays, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my chair in Mrs. Humphrey's English class to someone that will talk as much as I did and continue to drive Mrs. Humphreys crazy!!!
- I, Michael Andrew Brison, will my desk beside Mrs. Humphreys (Marsh T.) to Scott Bays in hopes that he will give her as hard a time as I did. To Blake Ainsworth, I will my ability to "chug" because I know he is lousy at it.
- I, Cheryl Burgess, will my well-established business of counseling and consoling those dear depressed souls to Mike Pauley; my orange tube socks to Linda Smith; my Clorox "Chorale" bleach to Barry Lindeman to wash his dog, Cinder; and lastly, my uncanny ability to remain on the "A" and "B" honor roll for three years to Jeff Boggess.
- I, Karen Burton, being of somewhat sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath to Debbie Younce, in hopes that she will stay on constant lookout for any new developments and to Debbie Fenwick, I leave my summer wardrobe, in hopes that she will leave her dad's clothes alone.
- I, Chalane Close, do hereby will my "chocolaty" golden brown tan to Wendy Smith and my "frisky ways" to Denise Mickens.
- I, Laura Combs, being of no mind and great body will my ability to squeeze three years of school into two years to any ROOKIE who is dumb enough to fail the 10th grade.
- I, Davey Cooper, being the only senior of sound mind (sanity) and body, do hereby leave my cropper and grease pencil to Sherry, Sherry, Sherry, in hopes that she will learn how to use them. To any future Español V students I leave my fantastic ability to teach the "Rookies" along with the students in Spanish I. ¡Buena suerte!
- I, Cathy Davidson, do hereby bequeath my malice toward the race of "Hobbits," along with my sympathy, to anyone who has to wade through 8 weeks of Tolkien in Mrs. Meadow's Contemporary Lit. class. Also, I leave to Donna Cooper, my acute and uncontrollable case of senioritis, and the ability (luck) to get away with it.
- I, Lee Ann Heath, being of small mind and large body do hereby will my few participation points in Speech class to Kim Murphy and all my basketball abilities to David Hall, since he has none. I also will my senior privileges to Lisa Lundy in hopes that she will figure out what they are.
- I, Shelley Horton, being of small mind and odd body do hereby leave my ability to end up with the hardest pages to do in the yearbook to Sherry Heath, and to Kacie Mullins I will all my senior privileges, if she can figure what and where they are.
- I, Darrick Hudson, will my parking place along the fence to Larry Penson and my ability to do a burn-out to Steve Thomas, who needs plenty of practice. I also will my talent of skipping class every day and not getting caught to Mike Jacobs.
- I, Debbie Isaac, being of semi-sound mind and semi-sound body, do hereby will my ability to solve mental disorders to Richard Sylvester; my ability to survive being the only female student council officer to next year's officers and my amazing "branny" to Chris Coleman.
- I, Steve Lyons, being of sound mind and body do hereby will my 1.4 scoring average to Willie "Point head" Jenkins in hopes that he can achieve stardom.
- I, John Mawyer, will all my great basketball ability to Kay "Boom Boom" Cottle. I will my presidency of the Student Council to whoever can match me and if possible, do a little better. I will a chair to Coach Walton and may he hit "Boxcar Willie" upside his head with it. I will my great writing ability to the "Big E," and may he take a few notes on the side.
- I, Kim Mills, being of sound mind and body hereby leave all my Evelyn Wood speed readin' talents to anyone who will take Miss Shavers' 3rd year typing class.
- I, Michelle Morgan, will my ability to graduate and pass classes to Karen Stover, and my naturally curly hair to Michelle Louther.
- I, Tim Walker, will all of my extra hair to Mr. Stern.
- I, Bubby Whittaker, will my seat in the counselor's office to my brother, Frank.
- I, Denys Wilson, having a dumbfounded mind and body do hereby will my famous line "Are you lying?", my hairbrush, and makeup, and my weak kidneys to April Mayes.
- I, Terri Tawney, being of an empty mind and no body will my "role" of being "Top Space Cadet" in the Senior class and the ability to have a good time wherever I am to that redhead, April Mayes.

Baccalaureate

Baccalaureate services were held on the evening of May 31 at the First Baptist Church. Reverend Robert Pate spoke to our graduating seniors, who began to realize that their high-school years were truly finished.

"A Time for all Seasons"

We've spent this time together
We knew it had to end.

We've seen all kinds of weather
And found another friend.
We've laughed a lot together
And now it's time to cry.

So go and God be with you
... Good-bye.

"We had nothing before us,

We had everything before us."

Class of 1981
